THE GREAT COLONIES

Of Furniture furnishings at 626 Kansas avenue and 617-619 Quincy street open wide their hospitable doors to all who enter therein for the furniture wherewith to properly and fashionably garnish their homes. Whether for brilliant reception or plain everyday use, this furniture has the right style and stamp of fashion. It is not merely that it is fashionable and therefore what you want for your home, but thoroughness of detail and of finish relieves this furniture of any suspicion of shoddiness or of the thought that "Time's defacing finger" will show up surface indications of improperly prepared and built furniture. "Be sure you are right, then go ahead," can be paraphrased into be sure your furniture at our store then go ahead with the consciousness that your furniture, like the Chevalier Bayard's character, is "above reproach."

PARLOR FURNISHINGS.

New goods are so much a matter of daily arriving that we forbear mentioning the fact. We will simply say, however, that during the past week one full car and immense open shipments have crowded our floors with the best the market affords in the line of furniture. There is now no call for anyone to visit antiquated, moss grown stocks, when such a bounteous feast of good, new furniture is spread before your eyes from which you can select that which best pleases you. Conspicuous among other furniture is a lot of new parlor sets which are not only very pretty, but are also low priced, in these particulars, being such a pleasant, refreshing contrast to the aged parlor sets that are frequently sold in this city by some furniture stores, that had no style ten years ago and have nothing to distinguish them now except their venerable looks and moth-infested coverings. Buy parlor sets that are as clean and bright as a child's fresh washed face, then you will not be haunted with the memory of mis-placed dollars, nor daily confronted with hideous furniture caricatures.

BABY CARRIAGES.

Just a few left—hardly enough to mention. Among them, however, are no $4.50 or $5.00 carriages. We do not keep that kind. They are made cheaply in every respect in construction and trimming, are made for the "cheap John" trade, junk shops and second-hand stores. Reputable firms cannot build up a reputation by selling that priced carriages. When you want a good carriage you will go where your neighbor went, to the store where good carriages are sold—our store. Carriages from $2.00 to $25.00 each.

A MAN

Desiring a comfortable bed will buy a fine bedstead and entirely of steel at a cost of $45.00 and a hair mattress at $20.00 to $35.00. Talk of the luxury of a good bed! You don't know anything about a comfortable bed until you try the above suggestions. We know that we do a kindly act in calling your attention to these facts and you do yourself a remarkable favor in adopting our suggestions, and in purchasing the superb goods we carry in stock. We have the very latest in springs, the very best of mattresses.

IN SOCIETY CIRCLES.

Marriage of Mr. Wm. Taylor and Miss Ada Hankla.

GENERAL NOTES OF SOCIETY.

Personal Items of Interest About Topeka People and Visitors in Town.

The home of Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Hankla was the scene of a pretty wedding last evening, the principals in which were Mr. William Taylor, son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Taylor and Miss Ada Hankla. At half past eight o'clock Mrs. Will Ford sounded Mendelssohn's wedding march and the bridal party came down the stairs through the hall and back parlors into the front parlor where a curtain of passion vine served as an attractive background, and a canopy of the same vine hung over their heads. Little Gertrude Hankla came first, gowned in yellow silk and white lace and carrying a basket of white roses, followed by Ruby Roark in white silk and lace, carrying a basket of pink roses. Miss Flora Holmes of New York came next, and she was attired in a gown of delicate blue bengaline silk, with an overdress of blue mousseline de soie. It was high necked with bouffant elbow sleeves and she wore blue suede gloves, satin slippers and a girdle of wide satin ribbon. Her bouquet was of Marshal Neil roses. The groom and his attendant, Mr. Nat Taylor, followed the bride and her father, Mr. T. J. Hankla. The bride's gown was pearl white satin duchesse, entrain, high necked and long sleeved. A puffed yoke of satin was very becoming to her, and on the shoulders were butterfly bows of satin ribbon. A long tulle veil was fastened high in her hair with lilies of the valley and a diamond pin, and lilies of the valley peeped from the bows on her shoulders. Her bouquet was of the same delicate blooms. Rev. J. S. Thomas read the solemn words of the ring marriage service, assisted by Rev. L. Bikesley, and the bridal party presented an unusually pretty picture, with a background of green foliage and a banking on either side of beautiful palms.

There were about seventy-five relatives and friends in the immediate neighborhood who were present at the ceremony, and who showered congratulatory words upon the bridal couple, after which an evening of informal social pleasure was enjoyed. The home was simply and artistically decorated with white chrysanthemums predominating in the back parlor. A banking of aloe, ferns and palms was effective in front of the mantel and palms covered the radiator.

Several handsome varieties of ferns were placed on the piano, and a little alcove leading from the parlor was made alluring with palms and a punch bowl, from which Miss May Thomas served lemonade. She looked very handsome in a gown of blue mousseline de soie over blue silk. The dining room was in yellow and vases and bowls filled with chrysanthemums that color adorned every available spot. A table in the center of the room was decorated entirely with a china and gold fern pan filled with delicate ferns in the center and strings of smilax strung from the four corners to the chandelier.

Mrs. J. R. Hankla, Miss Flora Mayo, Misses Gertrude and Mary Roberts all in evening gowns, presided over the dining room and assisted in the entertainment of the guests. Mrs. T. J. Hankla wore her wedding gown of white mousseline de soie with a train from the neck, ruffles of duchesse lace and chiffon sleeves. She wore white gloves and slippers and carried red roses. Mrs. Henry Taylor was gowned in black velvet entrain, with trimmings of point lace. Mrs. C. W. Holmes of Elmira, N. Y., an aunt of the bride, wore a gown of gray crystal silk with a bertha of duchesse lace.

Mr. and Mrs. Taylor went directly to their home at 516 Lane street where they will be at home to their friends after November 15. Their home is replete with evidences of the esteem and good will of many friends both in and out of Topeka.

Deceitful.

Mr. Thomas Dee and Miss Belle Hill were married at the bride's home on east Eighth avenue Monday afternoon. No one was present but the immediate relatives of both families. Miss Hill has been employed in the A. T. & S. F. general offices for the past five years and has many friends in railroad circles.

They will spend a few days in Chicago, and upon their return will be at home to their friends at 927 Madison street.

Mr. and Mrs. Baker Entertained. Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Baker entertained the members of the eucha club last evening, and it was the first meeting of the winter. Mrs. N. R. Baker, Mrs. H. W. Sharp and Mrs. Miller of Montclair, Ill., were guests of the club, and the members are: Messrs. and Mesdames W. A. Morton, Edwin Knowles, W. T. Crosby, E. H. Crosby, S. H. Brett, B. T. Lewis, S. J. Bear and Geo. Crane.

The next meeting will be with Mr. and Mrs. Brett in two weeks.

Washburn Club Entertained. The Washburn club was entertained on Monday evening by Mr. W. C. Campbell, who read the following original sketches and poems.

Sketch—Col. Jackson of Colorado.
Poem—The Farmer's Boy.
Music—Quartet.
Story—Queen Sabu.
Poem—What Love is Like.

Story—Only a G. A. R. Boy.
Mr. Campbell is a very pleasing writer, and the evening was thoroughly enjoyed both by the members of the club and a number of guests.

Progressive High Five.

Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Hunt entertained three tables at progressive high five at their home, 408 East Eighth street, Monday evening. Mr. E. L. Richards won the first prize and Mr. Richard Roby carried off the consolation prize. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Remly, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Knox, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Roby, Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Dom, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Maxwell, Miss Alma Dom and Mr. E. E. Richards.

GLOAK DEPARTMENT.

There is not a shadow of doubt but that we have the greatest number of styles in Ladies' and Children's Cloaks, Capes and Jackets shown by any house in the state. It would be difficult to name anything in the very newest wraps, but what you can find right here at prices which we will positively guarantee cannot be equaled, all things considered.

GLOAK DEPARTMENT.

We have made a purchase in addition to our regular cloak stock of some three hundred sample cloaks and capes, at a price far below the usual figures. Every garment different. Every one of them the choicest as to style, fit and makeup. Be sure you make no purchase until you have seen these. We can sell you such a garment at two-thirds the regular price.

a number of friends at a stag party this evening.

Mrs. J. E. Lord will give a party on Saturday evening, for Misses Janet and Lucy Lord, Scott Lord and Rebecca Rodgers, from eight until eleven.

The next Oxford party is on the 29th of November.

Mr. and Mrs. Julius Lehman of Osgood City spent today in the city.

Mr. Eli Ott of Geneseo, Ill., is visiting his brother, Mr. S. S. Ott.

Mrs. A. B. Campbell left today for Los Angeles, Cal., to join her husband and reside.

Mrs. Furman Baker has gone to Kansas City on a short visit.

Frank E. Bennett returned from Texas yesterday.

Mr. D. B. Lincoln of Denison, Texas, is the guest of Mr. Ed Streicher.

Miss Margaret Mulvane will entertain a few friends informally this evening.

Miss Myra Williams is spending the day in Kansas City.

Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Dietrich have returned from a visit in Dallas and Galveston, Texas.

Miss Ida Russell, who has made such a success of her gymnastic and general physical culture work in this city, has added another feature that will be enthusiastically received by the women.

The physical culture rooms are very attractive and the bowling alley is for the exclusive use of women, except as they form clubs of ten and reserve the alley for certain evenings, when they can invite gentlemen as their guests.

These clubs can bowl an hour and a half on two days of the week and one evening a week from 7:30 until 10 o'clock. For these privileges each member of the club will pay $5 for a term of four months.

For the privilege of bowling any hour in the day not assigned to a club, it will cost $1 a month.

A Fire Casualty.

While going to the fire this morning Chief Wilmarth's horse fell at the corner of Tenth street and Kansas avenue and tore considerable flesh off of both fore-knees. The horse will be disabled for a time. Chief Wilmarth escaped injury.

The Daily State Journal prints all the news.

Attention Democrats.
